

7 DAYS TO FALL IN LOVE WITH THE COSTA BLANCA

A well-spent week is not measured by how much you do, but by how it makes you feel. This itinerary has been designed to help you discover El Albir and its surroundings at the right pace.

The Route

7 days to truly switch off and return home feeling that you have experienced a great deal - but in all the right ways.

This itinerary brings together some of the very best of the Costa Blanca, all from the comfort of a bright, peaceful base like Albir Experience: seaside walks, charming towns, beautiful day trips, time to unwind, and memorable experiences that make your stay feel full in the loveliest sense.

The Itinerary

DAY 1 Arrive, breathe, and settle into it

- Arrival at the apartment and self check-in. (Remember, your PIN activates with a smile when you arrive)
- Time to settle in slowly, open the windows, and enjoy that first feeling of finally being here
- A first stroll through El Albir to ease gently into holiday mode
- A relaxed dinner to begin your stay without rushing

→ Thought for the day: the first day is not for hurrying. It is for letting go. For leaving the noise behind, slowing down, and beginning to feel the light, the air, and the Mediterranean all around you.

DAY 2 El Albir, Altea. Best enjoyed slowly

- Spend the morning in El Albir, strolling by the sea, enjoying the atmosphere, and letting the destination reveal itself little by little.
- If you fancy something a little more lively, we recommend laughter among the waves with paddle boarding.
- Lunch at Albir Experience.
- Head to Altea.
 - Wander through its old town, ~~whitewashed~~ streets, peaceful corners, and sea-facing viewpoints
 - Dinner in Altea's Old Town, in a beautiful and special setting

→ Thought for the day: some places do not need grand plans to win you over. All you need to do is walk slowly, look around, and let yourself be carried along.

DAY 3 Nature and an evening to savour

- Excursion to Fonts d'Algar and Guadalest. A change of scenery that opens the week to a greener, fresher, and more surprising side of the Costa Blanca.
- Return with time to rest and enjoy a slower pace.
- Barbecue dinner to end the day in a warm, relaxed, and special way at Albir Experience.

→ Thought for the day: between mountains, fresh water, and villages full of character, this is a day designed to reveal another side of the destination - one that stays with you long after you return.

DAY 4 The luxury of not doing too much

- A relaxing morning at Albir Experience
- Time for the pool, a bit of rest, and that underrated pleasure of not looking at the time
- Beach, promenade, or simply unwinding - whatever suits the mood
- A quiet dinner and a gentle evening

→ Thought for the day: a beautiful week also needs pauses. This day is here for exactly that: to breathe, slow down, and enjoy the simple pleasure of just being.

DAY 5 Bicycles, sea, mediterranean flavour

- Cycle route to Playa de la Roda
- Lunch in Altea.
 - Recommendation: "arroz al señoret"
 - Suggested restaurants: Juan Abril or San Miguel
- A relaxing afternoon at the beach
- Catamaran ride at sunset
- Dinner at Albir Experience

→ Thought for the day: this is the kind of day that tastes of summer - sea air, rice by the water, and that effortless happiness that appears when everything falls perfectly into place.

DAY 6 Relaxation, Benidorm, and adrenaline at sea

- A slow morning at Albir Experience
- A peaceful breakfast and time to enjoy the complex without watching the clock
- Head to Benidorm
- Stroll around the Balcón del Mediterráneo
- Jet ski experience to add a lively, memorable touch to the week
- Time afterwards to continue enjoying the atmosphere or sit down to dinner at a gentler pace

➔ Thought for the day: a day that brings together rest, beautiful views, and a touch of fun - the sort of combination that turns a holiday into something even more memorable.

DAY 7 Sunrise and a beautiful goodbye

- Sunrise in El Albir
- Walk along the Albir Lighthouse Route
- Final moments to enjoy the sea, breathe deeply, and say goodbye without rushing

➔ Thought for the day: there could hardly be a lovelier way to end your stay: morning light, open sea, and the comforting feeling that you truly made the most of it.

Closing

If, after a week like this, you find yourself wishing you could stay just a little longer, we would completely understand. Ask about late check-out availability and hold on to that feeling of being exactly where you want to be for just a little more time.

Our Tips

- 1 Always leave room for spontaneity, some of the very best moments in El Albir happen when you stop trying to plan everything
- 2 Alternate a more active plan with a slower one, and you will enjoy both the destination and the rest even more.
- 3 Book ahead for any experiences you definitely do not want to miss, especially in high season.
- 4 Do remember to ask our Albir Experience team about booking activities. We will be delighted to help arrange everything, so all you need to do is enjoy it.
